

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

6261

1929

1929 SUPPLEMENT

On account of the very wet season, my bulbs did not grow well last year, and first size bulbs of many varieties are scarce. Please state in your order if I may substitute equal value of smaller sizes. I cannot supply Joe Coleman, Primulinus Hybrids, or the $1.75 collection. I have a few of the following additional varieties:

MRS. LEON DOUGLAS—A giant begonia-rose, striped and speckled. Long spike. Very showy. 20 cents. each.

WILBRINK—A very early flesh pink. A sport of Halley. 5 cents each; 50 cents per dozen.

RIP VAN WINKLE—35 cents each.

DAHLIAS

A. D. LIVONIA—10 cents each.

FLORADORA—25 cents each.

JACK ROSE—20 cents each.

MRS. J. HARRISON DICK—Decorative. Yellow at center, outer petals sometimes overlaid with salmon pink. Good grower and profuse bloomer. 35 cents each.

BONTON—Ball type. Garnet of good form. Free bloomer. 20 cents each.

MEDUSA—Decorative. A new type. Free bloomer. As the flower expands, the long narrow petals unfold with individual twists. Very large. Luminous rose red, lighter at tips. 35 cents each.

R. E. Boomhower

CATSKILL, N. Y.

